Paul Bach-y-Rita

To celebrate the inauguration of the
Paul Bach-y-Rita Memorial Lecture,
Alvaro Pascual-Leone, MD, PhD, from

LEARNING ABOUT SEEING FROM THE BLIND.

Dr. Alvaro Pascual-Leone

the Berenson-Allen Center for Noninvasive Brain Stimulation, the Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center and Harvard Medical School, Boston, Massachusetts, will provide insights into the organization of the human brain and of sensory perception by studying “vision” in the visually impaired.

A reception will follow the lecture.

Look for your invitation in February.
